

Ali Blumenthal

Ali Blumenthal grew up sailing on Bellport Bay and is an alumna of the Bellport Bay Sailing program. Ali competed in Optimists, C420's, I420's and 29ers in her youth. She traveled internationally to represent the US at many I420 European Championships and World Championships. After junior sailing, Ali attended the College of Charleston in South Carolina and graduated in 2015. During her four years in Charleston Ali competed on the varsity sailing team as a crew and was a three-time ICSCA All-American. In addition, she helped the team win two National Championships during her time spent in school. Ali is now finishing her fifth year as the Assistant Sailing Coach at Dartmouth College where she has aided in the development of some of the country's top college sailors. When she is not coaching at Dartmouth, Ali is traveling with TeamBAAM USA, a women's match racing team she is a part of. Her match race team has competed both nationally and internationally for the past few years, and most recently won the 2019 US Women's Match Racing Championships. From a young age Ali knew sailing was her passion and she is grateful to be able to share her love of the sport with young sailors. She is excited to be able to give back in the place where she learned it all.
