

Cori is the assistant coach at Bowdoin College. The season before she joined the polar bears, the team made their debut on the national stage and the program has continued to make history. In 2019, the team qualified for all four national championships they tried for and saw the team's first two All-American's. A graduate from Old Dominion University, Cori traveled to four national championships and ended with a team finish of fourth place at The ICSA Women's National Championship Finals. Additionally, she has spent time as the Program Director at Nantucket Yacht Club and coached Severn Sailing Association, Fishing Bay Yacht Club, Christchurch School, and Norfolk Academy.